

Mrs. Shepherd: Oh yes.

Mr. Tisdale: And to what use is Parcel 3 devoted?

Mrs. Shepherd: Parcel 3, nothing.

Mr. Tisdale: To your knowledge, while you have since 1975, while you've had title to the property, has anybody else come onto the property without your permission?

Mrs. Shepherd: Sometimes the hunters come up here and I go up and ask them please to leave.

Mr. Tisdale: And have you had any other instances where people have come onto the property without your permission without your knowledge?

Mrs. Shepherd: No.

Mr. Tisdale: Are there any other structures which are not shown in Exhibit 1 which you use ?

Mrs. Shepherd: Yes, there's a spring house next to the main house and we, my sons, use that to practice their rock and roll, and we also use the basement and my understanding was that Mr. Alexander did also to store peaches because it was nice and cold down there. And at the intersection with the road, it meets pretty sharply and it's not drawn in so I can't tell if it's on or off, but I would expect from the layout that it's on this Parcel 2 is a garage which we house various farm equipment.

Mr. Tisdale: Would you draw a circle in the approximate location of the spring house please?

Mrs. Shepherd: Oh shoot! Well, the house is.....

Mr. Tisdale: And would you then make a triangle approximately
